

PROVISION OF BANK ACCOUNT DETAILS BY VET
(FOR TB ERAD TESTING)

Important Data Protection Notes:

- The purpose of collecting this Data, including your account details, is to release payments (if any) that fall due to you from the Department and when necessary to net payments. Payments cannot issue and netting cannot occur if account details are not provided.
- The Data collected is in line with our statutory obligations, including Animal Health and Welfare Act 2013 and in line with current Data Protection legislation.
- The Data provided on this form will be provided to other business areas within the Department for the purpose of processing payments. The Department is also currently obliged by law to provide information concerning applicants in response to requests received from the office of the Revenue Commissioners, An Garda Síochána and other bodies in accordance with current Data Protection legislation.
- The data collected for this purpose will be held by the Department only as long as there is a business need to do so in line with the purpose(s) for which it was collected. After this time it will be marked for destruction and will be destroyed in line with internal guidelines or guidelines for destruction received from the National Archives Office or associated permissions received from them.
- Each individual has data protection rights, which have been further enhanced by the introduction of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which comes into effect on the 25 May 2018. These rights are:
 - A. A right to access their personal data
 - B. A right to correct or rectify their personal data
 - C. A right to erasure
 - D. A right to restriction of processing
 - E. A right to object or withdraw consent to processing
 - F. A right to data portability
 - G. A right to make a complaint to the Data Protection Commissioner's Office.
- You may contact the Data Protection Unit in relation to any of your rights as outlined above.
