

FII

Minister Hackett,

The situation does not need to be spelled out by me. It is well known to all in the industry and for that matter the wider public.

This proposed amendment is simply bringing the Forestry Appeals process in line with An Bord Pleannala process. This is not impinging on a persons right to Appeal.

This industry is not on the brink of collapse. It is collapsing.

This bill HAS to be passed.