

The Elmtree Clinic

Dear Pippa,

I object to the forestry amendment bill. This bill is designed to erode the public's rights to challenge a forestry licence application and charge you doing this. I feel this will promote the erosion of native Irish plants, animals and trees with the planting of more conifer plantations which are shown to be detrimental to our environment and the future of our beautiful country.

Mise le meas,

The Elmtree Clinic