As a concerned farmer I don't understand why the numerous hedgerows, trees and small woodlands on my farm and all the other farms of Ireland are not taken into account to be offset when calculating our carbon emissions

Best Regards,

James Mullally