Dear sir madam

In relation to Ireland’s Climate action plan I would like to enquire as to why the grass, hedgerows, trees and small woodlands of the farmers of Ireland are not used to offset calculations of our carbon emissions.

Yours sincerely

Margaret Doolan